

m/s Queen R, Archipelago City Cruise

Kuopio Passenger Harbor, one of the biggest tourist attractions in Kuopio.

To the right you can see Varvisaari, an island for many summer houses. There is a foot bridge to the island from the Rönö island visible on the background.

To the right is the Rönö island, the high class residential area. In 1988 a bridge was built to connect it to the mainland.

To the right you can see the music center, where concerts and conferences are held.

The park area to the right is Väinölänniemi, a popular recreation and sport location. There is for example a sport stadium, swimming bath and the statue of the Runner Hannes Kolehmainen.

To the right, Haapaniemi, we have Kuopio Energy's heat plant and deep harbor, where ships all the way from Europe visit.

To the right is Hietasalo, one of the city's recreational areas. There is a large beach and the city's groundwater intake facility.

Saaristokaupunki stands for "The Town of the Archipelago". This is a new neighborhood, and one of the most appreciated areas in Kuopio.
